

News Release

22 February 2008

MORRIS & SPOTTISWOOD APPOINTS NEW HEALTH AND SAFETY TRAINER

Fit out and refurbishment specialists Morris & Spottiswood has appointed Jim McGeachin as a new health and safety trainer. Jim will be responsible for bringing training in-house for Morris & Spottiswood's own people, as well working with sub-contractors, consultants and clients.

"I'm looking forward to helping shape a first-class health and safety training programme that will add to Morris & Spottiswood's ethos of creating a special place to work," he says.

Jim is currently undertaking a part-time BA in Occupational Health & Safety Management at Caledonian University, Glasgow, which is being sponsored by the company.

Morris & Spottiswood, which has offices in Warrington, Glasgow and Edinburgh, is a leading UK fit out and refurbishment provider to the retail, banking, commercial, education, healthcare and social housing sectors. The company is also Britain's third largest retail fit out specialist, with key clients such as M&S, RBS, Tesco and ASDA.

- Ends -

Photos: Jim McGeachin, new Morris & Spottiswood health and safety trainer.

Editor's note: Morris & Spottiswood is a leading provider of fit out and maintenance services to the retail, banking, commercial, education and healthcare sectors across North West England and Scotland. Established in 1925, the company is Britain's third largest shopfitter. Morris & Spottiswood is also a leading regional provider of new build, fit out, refurbishment and maintenance services to the social housing sector. The company has a growing portfolio of social housing projects arising from partnering agreements with local housing organisations throughout Scotland.

Media contacts: Liz Coyle-Camp/Lyndsay Scanlan, 01747 871752, lyndsay@emc2publicrelations.com